Now, in this immensely useful and revelatory book, she fully explains the power of a transformative idea that can replace chaos with joy, and confusion with clarity. There are no discussion topics on this book. A Life-Transforming Idea by Suzy Welch was even better than I expected – I encourage everyone to read it even those that think self-help books are for weaklings. This approach is similar to looking at things with a pro and con viewpoint but I was totally drawn into the personal stories and decision moments captured in the book, every one of 10-10-10: A Life-Transforming Idea so genuinely reflect what we all face in one way or another. I guess if Oprah likes your idea, you can get a book published out of it. Winning The first 10 basically stands for "right now" - as in, one minute, one hour, or one week. So I see this method as one of many to consider when making decisions, certainly the tools you need to think sharper and smarter. Are our decisions the right ones?
