The writing is rich, descriptive and flows effortlessly. To save those who have been captured and to protect those who can not escape. The answer is yes, it will captivate you; but I gotta admit that I reluctantly started reading this book after a full weekday without touching my iPad.

This world-building was all over the place and didn't really make sense to me. The strange sex-visions just felt "WTF" to me instead of enticing. She can also, evidently, protect others and that's why she's useful to the army. The passionate romantic relation between the lead characters made it an intriguing read and I enjoyed the ending very .

This is a fantastic start to the series with wonderful world-building. Despite all the plot holes I still enjoyed the story, and will definitely continue.
