She liked to study people, help them and she felt happy doing. She doesn't care that he's simply not interested. I wish I had liked this book. It's the same way with people" That line that'll make you believe that there's more to life than what you thought There aren't as many obstacles, or avalanches, or unexpected delays. I got so many things First Comes Love of this novel and it is most definitely a keeper. And I just love her! The love story is bittersweet and will tug at your heart, the relationships are tight and well-written, the plot is engaging and slow to develop, and most importantly, the characters are memorable and unique.
