Farrell KrellDavid. YoungJulian The first fails, for Zarathustra reports that never yet on earth has a human being laughed as the shepherd laughed, from which it seems directly to follow that no child has ever laughed as the shepherd laughed. TheCreatorofTragedy. WesterdaleJoel P. Central to Loeb's treatment of the riddle of Zarathustra's dreams, visions, allegories, and the like is the original and immensely fecund insight, again premised on a performative understanding of Nietzsche's clue, that these dreams and visions can be read as displaying "the fact that Zarathustra is living a life he has already lived before," and, The Death of Nietzsches Zarathustra fact, as showing "that the circular course of Zarathustra's repeated life enables him to remember a past that is also his future " Del CaroAdrian HeideggerMartinLoeb's reading of these aphorisms is an interpretive tour de forcebut the performative understanding that this reading is meant to support -- again, that the narrative of TSZ displays the repeated circular course of Zarathustra's life viz.
