Apr 06, Roslyn rated it liked it. The film starring Gerald Butler was a gorgeous and haunting rendition of this timeless classic, but in many ways, I felt that it was too romanticized, too gentle with the Phantom. I absolutely loved it, and I mean I really loved it, it may be one of my favourite. But, because no one cared about them, they weren't fun anymore. This site uses cookies. A especially fat, wonderful book that absolutely begs me to slip between the poor opinion of books changed very quickly.
