She's struggling to retain her humanity and Zoey doesn't have a clue And narrow the narrators down to three or two, because with every character getting a turn, it's too sporadic.
Neferet guards her powerful new consort, Kalona, who looks gorgeous and has the House of Night under his spell.
Maybe it's because the ending was the only part where anything of substance ha To get her to act, Stark comes out of the enchanted meadow and faces Kalona in an arena. While I was beating my head against a wall along with the rest of the folks that were eye-rolling at Zoey's three guys issue, I did find it interesting how each of her relationships were portrayed in a different light. This is basically about the whole series, but I thought I could point it out while I'm ranting.
