Sure her characters are colorless and sterotypical it seemes like every wizard except Leander, Snowbeard, and some other random guy mention for the purpose of killing are the only good wizards, none of the others seem to have an ounce of humanity.

HealsospendsalotoftimewithhisgirlfriendMadisonMoss, andtreatsherwi She describes their strain and struggle for about three paragraphs. That is the tale of JasontriedtoescapebeforeSeph, andSephhavingnowaytoknowwhetherhemad from The Wizard Heir. Chima did better with the pacing in this than she did in The Warrior Heirand yet there were still so many times where it felt like she didn't really take the time to flesh out scenes or explain just a little bit more about why they were so significant to begin with that they would be worth mentioning in passing.
