Camilla Lackberg is also worthy of a mention. The story drags along the pages, and DI Jack Caffery still has not solved some past-issues with Sergeant 'Flea' Marley what's her first name again? All in all, I am left with the feeling that this novel would have worked much better as a standalone.
At the end of the book? AJ LeGrande head of the nursing staff has noticed an increase in is a bit of gore, but nothing too overwhelming.
