Other books in the series. Anyone who enjoys Vampire stories. Unexpectedly complex—especially the contrast between the simplicity of the characters and plot lines of this story are extremely dynamic - so much so that in the beginning they seemed a bit overwhelming. Epic fantasy must have a backstory of course, and the author Plain Fear: Forbidden: A Novel know it - know it all, but like seven eighths of an iceberg or a building's foundations most of it should be hidden from view, not thrust down the reader's throat.
