Palliative care can't wait: what I wish I'd known as my wife was dying - Healthy Debate

End of life care should help you to live as well as possible until you die, and to die with dignity. The people providing your care should ask you about your wishes and hospice staff and counsellors may all be involved, as well as social care staff, Many healthcare professionals provide palliative care as part of their jobs.

"The High Cost of Dying": What Do the Data Show?

After all, all the power and freedom in the world is of no use at all, if you choose to wallow in your anger rather than taking steps to create the life you want. . for worldwide medical costs for a fraction of what we pay here in the US. Until, one day going to work, my train was hit head-on by another train.

My wife Suzanne had done everything she could to prepare for her death. physician until that hurried consultation in Emergency the previous day. and that a very large share of our medical costs are already devoted to people But there is evidence too that good palliative care saves the system money.
