learned so much about this woman by going through her collection of books. I liked the first part much more than the second because he goes into detail about man's nature and such, whereas the second part is just The Underground Man IneverthoughtI'dreadDostoyevsky.It reminds us how in our quest to understand the outside world and other people, their actions and motivations, often spending way more energy than needed, we often forget to understand our very own selves!
